

Bio – Pam Martinez
VP of Human Resources & Risk Management, DATTCO

Pam Martinez has been in the bus business for over 32 years. She is currently the Vice President of Human Resources and Risk Management for DATTCO, where she is responsible for Human Resources of over 2100 employees and the Safety for over 1650 vehicles. She has been with DATTCO for over 14 years.

Pam began her career in the bus business by participating in an internship for a bus company while attending college. After her internship ended, she was offered a permanent position where she worked in Operations and eventually became the Corporate Treasurer and General Manager.

Pam Has a BS Degree in Management and an MBA with a concentration in Human Resources. She also has an OSHA 10, 30 and 511 Certification.

Pam is currently the President of Connecticut Bus Association and the Risk Control Chairperson of TRAX Insurance. She has also previously held several board positions for organizations including the Northeast School Transportation Safety Institute, The Connecticut School Transportation Association, the Southington Chamber of Commerce and the Milford Newcomers.

Pam has been a speaker for the TRAX Insurance Group, BISC and IMG.